

climate & social justice now!

A TRAIN TO WARSAW

www.climatejustice.eu

15-17th Nov. 2013

For a socially just and ecologically sustainable international agreement

Just Transition and Decent Work

After the successful “train to Copenhagen” initiative in 2009 to bring the climate and social movements to the manifestation held during the climate negotiations; “Climate and Social Justice” will this year organize another train to join the march for a fair, ambitious and binding agreement.

This time, our destination is Warsaw! The train leaves on Friday, November 15th at noon to be back in Brussels on Monday morning, November 18th.

Join the train that leaves for Warsaw to take action in the manifestation on Saturday, November 16th and reserve your seat!

Visit our website:

www.climatejustice.eu

And register!

To not turn away from the climate negotiations

To not forget to act and put pressure on global processes

To mobilize again against imposed false solutions

To close the organizational ranks in Belgium and beyond

To fight together for climate and social justice!

contact : contact@climatejustice.eu